

Erin Ryan
Copywriting Student
The Creative Circus

Radio Mercury Awards Student Submission

Baseball Press Room :30

SFX: Indistinct talking and the clicking of cameras.

REPORTER: Over here! Yes hi. That was a tough loss today, what happened out there?

PLAYER: The other team got the better of us, nothing I could have done.

REPORTER: You were eating a hotdog in the outfield. Don't you think there was something you could have done?

PLAYER: Nah, there were eight other guys playing. Didn't need me.

REPORTER: But the shortstop had to chase down a ball in left field as you licked mustard off your arm. Two players scored on an easy pop-up.

PLAYER: How is that my fault?

The room goes silent in shock for a brief moment. A few cameras can be heard going off.

VO: Some things only work when everyone does their part. Be a team player. Wear a mask.