2024 ENTRY FEES

- Agency/Production Company/Advertiser:
 - $175 for single/noncampaign entries.
 - $350 for campaign entries.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN YOUR ENTRY

Read through the categories and their individual guidelines to find the best matches for your work.

Have the following information ready before you begin the entry process. (Note: You can start your entry online and finish adding elements before the entry deadline.)

- Complete credits, including the people who produced the entry, e.g., writer(s), producer(s), talent and production company. We will use these credits if your entry becomes a finalist, so make sure the credits are complete and accurate before you finalize your entry.
- Important: In order to finalize your work and before the entry deadline, you will have to provide substantiation as follows:
 - Broadcast radio categories: You must provide proof that the work in your entry was broadcast, aired or ran on a U.S.-licensed broadcast radio station(s) or group and/or its digital radio station components during the entry eligibility period. This substantiation could be a Proof of Air/Traffic Log from a broadcast radio station, an invoice from a radio station or a written and scanned letter from the media-buying agency with dates. You must send this paperwork on or before our entry deadline to Madison Wright at mercury@rab.com.
 - Branded Podcast and Use of Emerging Technology in Radio or Audio categories: You must provide proof that a podcast or nonbroadcast audio work aired or ran during the entry eligibility period. This substantiation could be a Proof of Air/Traffic log or a written and scanned letter from the media-buying agency with dates. For podcast work, send in a screenshot of when the podcast aired. You must send this paperwork on or before our entry deadline to Madison Wright at mercury@rab.com.
- The actual audio/video file for your entry.
- A written description of the work and how you feel it successfully used radio and or audio to drive the main message. Note: Do not include your agency/company/station name or names of creative team in the description, as all work is judged anonymously.
- Payment information, e.g., credit card number.
- Please fill out the signed agreement form once you've finished your entry(ies) to mercury@rab.com.

OVERALL ENTRY GUIDELINES

- You can submit entries in any language.
 - You can enter non-English language work in any category.
 - Non-English language entries should be originally produced in that language, and the final produced work should be predominantly in that language.
 - You will need to submit a side-by-side translation of the work included in the entry, and for any printed or visual copy that is in not in English.
- Definition of broadcast and nonbroadcast entries:
 - Broadcast: For the purposes of the Radio Mercury Awards, “broadcast radio” means U.S.-licensed AM and FM radio stations owned and operated by U.S. radio stations and groups, along with any digital radio stations owned and operated by the stations and groups. The work ran on-air on a U.S.-licensed radio station(s). The work can also have run entirely digitally on a U.S.-licensed radio station or be a combination of on-air and digital on a U.S.-licensed radio station(s).
 - Nonbroadcast: For the purposes of the Radio Mercury Awards, “nonbroadcast” audio means digital-only streaming services, e.g., Spotify and Pandora; satellite-only services, e.g., Sirius XM; CB, Ham and amateur radio stations.
 - Some categories are open to nonbroadcast audio entries, e.g., Branded Podcast and Multi-Platform Campaign with Broadcast Audio.
 - Note: If you produced a commercial or campaign that ran both on broadcast radio and nonbroadcast channels, you can enter the work in an eligible commercial or campaign category as long as the work ran on a broadcast radio station(s) in conjunction with the nonbroadcast channels. At the time of entry, you will be required to submit appropriate paperwork attesting that the work ran on a broadcast radio station(s), as defined above.
- Definition of who can enter:
 - Agency, advertiser, or production company submissions: Work that was produced by an agency, advertiser or production company.
 - Radio station or group submissions: Work that was produced by a radio station, group, or a radio station or group’s production/creative services department.
 - Student submissions: Work that was created by a student or group of students at a U.S. accredited college, university, college-level radio station or trade/specialty school.
- Entries that do not comply will be returned, and you will be asked to resubmit them in the correct format and/or length.
- Entry fees are nonrefundable.

ENTRY ELIGIBILITY PERIOD AND WHAT TYPE OF WORK YOU CAN ENTER

Eligibility period:

(Note: The U.N. (United Nations) 17 Sustainable Development Goals offer an overview of relevant issues: <https://sdgs.un.org/goals#goals> for specific examples.)

BRANDED PODCAST

AGENCY, PRODUCTION COMPANY OR ADVERTISER

A branded podcast episode or series created by an agency, production company, radio station or group and produced for, or in partnership with, an advertiser or nonprofit organization. The entry should demonstrate how the podcast episode or series used audio to drive brand awareness and recall through creative ideation, craft and execution.

- Each entry must include the following:
 - An excerpt of the podcast series or highlights of the episode, at a maximum of two minutes.
 - A link to a full podcast episode of the work.
 - An audio case study detailing how the advertiser's or organization's message was integrated into the podcast episode or series.

Note: This category is not eligible to compete for the Best of Show.

MULTI-PLATFORM CAMPAIGN WITH BROADCAST RADIO

AGENCY, PRODUCTION COMPANY OR ADVERTISER

Multi-platform campaign, in which broadcast radio is an essential and driving media of the campaign, that creatively communicates an advertiser's services and value. Additional media channels can include nonbroadcast audio, TV, social media, podcasts, branded content and experiential display. The campaign should deliver a consistent brand message across all the channels. The broadcast radio component should be able to stand on its own as a campaign.

Entry requirements:

Include two or three broadcast radio commercials from the campaign within one file and position the broadcast radio commercials at the beginning of your entry.

- Submit the commercials, without slates and with no more than two seconds between spots.
- You can include a link to additional media used within the campaign in the section where you submit a description of the work.
- Case studies: If you submit a video case study, you must include two or three broadcast radio commercials from the campaign and place them at the beginning of your entry. Case studies that do not meet these criteria will be returned, and you will be asked to resubmit your case study to comply with our guidelines.
